Numb. 846

The Daily Gazetteer.

TUESDAY, MARCH 21. 1738 No. 854.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France, and another from Holland.

LETTERS from Nimirow of the 17th ult. O. S. say, that the Secretary whom the British Resident at Peterſburg diſpatched to Conſtantinople, and who was oblig'd to return from Jazzy to Bender, to ſtay there till he had Leave from the Porte to proceed, is ſet out to continue his Journey to Conſtantinople; to which Place he carries the News, that Great Britain and Holland had conſented to be Mediators a long with France, for an Accommodation of the War betwixt the Porte and the Powers at War with it. The Diſpatch with which the Orders were ſent for the ſaid Secretary's proceeding on his Journey, gives room for Conjecture, that the Ottoman Porte is pleaſed to hear of the Reſolution of the two Maritime Powers; and as they will, no doubt, do their utmoſt to bring about a Peace, there's all the Reaſon to hope, that the ſame will be concluded this Year; eſpecially, conſidering the Influence which the three Mediatorial Powers have over the Porte.

They write from the Ukraine, that the Tartars, to the Number of 100,000, were preparing to invade that Country in three different Places, and had ſent 600 Men beforehand to enter the Country; but that the Huſſars and Ruſſian Coſſacks fell upon them, and put almoſt every Man of them to the Sword, which ſo diſmay'd the reſt of the Tartars, that they all retired with Precipitation, without ſtriking a Stroke.

The Letters from Vienna are of the 4th Inſtant O.S. but they bring nothing new relating to Count Seckendorff, only that he has exhibited ſome Charges againſt other Generals, who, 'tis ſaid, are alſo to paſs through an Examination. The Great Duke of Tuſcany having interceded with the Emperor in favour of Major General Doxat, we are aſſured, that his Imperial Majeſty made Anſwer, That he could not help making an Example of him upon this Occaſion, to engage the Officers hereafter not to neglect their Duty.

There's a Perſon at Vienna who has offer'd to lay down 200,000 Florins to ſave the Life of that General; but we don't hear that it has been accepted; on the contrary 'tis expected we ſhall ſoon be told, that he has been beheaded according to the Sentence of the Council of War; that the Executioner has broke Colonel Ombach's Sword; that the other Commiſſion Officers are clapped in Irons, and ſhut up in Dungeons for the Space of a Year, and that the Lieutenants are ſent to work on the Fortifications of ſome Place or other for the Term of 3 Months.

A Duel was lately fought in the Suburbs of Vienna, between an Officer in the Service of the Emperor, and one Durand, a Native of Lyons. The former, who is the Son of Cremer, the late Agent of the Chancery in Bohemia, and called himſelf Cremeri, is a Captain Engineer. The ſecond was Aid de Camp to the Marſhal de Villars in Italy, and has been ſeveral Years at Vienna, on Pretence that he durſt not return to France, becauſe he had killed ſome Officers in a Duel. Laſt Year he made the Campaign in quality of a Voluntier; but his Delight was Gaming, which has been the Cauſe of his Misfortune. Having won a conſiderable Sum of Capt. Crimeri, it happen'd that they met one another afterwards at the Opera, when the Frenchman, purely from the natural Prejudice of that Nation againſt any thing that is Foreign, took it into his Head to find fault with both the Play and the Actors. Crimeri, who did not forget the Money he had loſt to him, took their Part with a great deal of Warmth, and his Adverſary was as hot in accuſing them, ſo that they both drew their Swords; but the Count de Schlick, a Member of the Royal Council of Bohemia, interpoſed and pacify'd them. Mean time the Affair being talk'd of abroad, the Imperial Captain received a No exeat domo, and the Frenchman would have been confined by an Order of the ſame Nature, if he had not put himſelf under the Protection of the Marquis de Mirepoix, the Ambaſſador of France. Not many Days after this, he ſent a Challenge to Capt. Crimeri to meet him at ſuch a Time and Place. The Captain, in Diſobedience to his lawful Officer, and in Spite of the Arreſt that he was put under, made out to the Place appointed, to which Durand came in a Poſt Chaiſe. They had agreed to fight with Piſtols. The Imperial Officer, in Reſpect to the Foreigner, gave him Leave to fire his two Piſtols firſt, which having miſſed him, he fir'd in his Turn and mortally wounded him in the Breaſt. The Frenchman finding himſelf ſhot, drew his Sword and clapping his Hand upon the Wound, ſtabbed the Imperial Officer in the Rim of his Belly. The latter is ſince retir'd to the Convent of St. Francis de Paul, but his Wound is reckon'd Mortal, as was that of the Frenchman, who died the ſame Day at 9 o'Clock in the Evening.

They write from the Hague, that during the Abſence of the Marquis de Fenelon who is returned to Paris, the Abbe de la Ville, Secretary of the Embaſſy, is to take Care of the Affairs of France. He is univerſally eſteem'd at the Hague, being a young Gentleman of prodigious Abilities, and who has been for ſeveral Years the very Soul of the Embaſſy.

A Letter from Paris takes Notice, that ſince Cardinal Fleury has been on the mending Hand, there is not ſo much Caballing as there was between the Parties of the Orleans and Bourbon-Conde Families for ſupplying the Vacancies, if the Cardinal ſhould drop, and that his Eminency has ſome Thoughts now of appointing his own Succeſſor, who they ſay, will be the Archbiſhop of Tours. Mean time the News of his Recovery has raiſed the French India Company's Stock to 1985.

Letters of the 25th ult. O S. from Leghorn, contradict the News that the Marquis Jacinto Paoli was killed by an advanced Guard of the Genoeſe, and on the contrary report, that he has cauſed a Manifeſto to be publiſhed, exhorting the Corſican Malecontents to die with Sword in Hand, rather than to return under the Dominion of the Republick of Genoa. The Maſters of ſeveral Ships, both French and Dutch, that are arrived from Corſica, confirm that the Malecontents have not taken the Red Iſland, and that the ſame, together with the Fort built in it, are ſtill in the Hands of the Genoeſe.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, March 14. The Commiſſion of the General Aſſembly which met here laſt Week, had produced to them a Letter from his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, acquainting them, that their Addreſs to his Majeſty upon the Birth of the young Princeſs, Daughter to their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, was graciouſly received.

An Addreſs, condoling with his Majeſty, the Death of the late Queen, was unanimouſly approved of, a Draught thereof prepared, and the ſame was ordered to be tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle.

Adviſed the Presbytery of Haddington, that two Perſons in their Bounds, who were irregularly married by Mr. David Strang, ſince he was excommunicated by the Church, be publickly rebuked before the Congregation; and ordered the ſaid Mr. Strang to be proſecuted criminally for the ſaid Offence.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Derby, March 16. This Evening the Aſſizes ended here, when the two follow Perſons received Sentence of Death, viz. Richard Woodward, one of the Perſons we lately mentioned to have been committed to Nottingham Gaol for ſeveral Robberies on the Highway; and John Moreton for Deer-ſtealing. Everard Mabley, was tried for ſtealing three Ewe Sheep, to be tranſported. John Sikes, for ſtealing a black Mare from James Green of Higham, acquitted. Joſeph Lowe, for Burglary and Felony, acquitted. William Wragg, for ſtealing a Coat, Waiſtcoat, and Breeches, a Pair of Shoes and Stockings, from Iſaac Boun of Matlock, burnt in the Hand. Katherine Hatton, for ſtealing 13 Yards and a half of Tammy, from Mr. John Bingham of Derby, Mercer, to be tranſported. George Croxall, for ſtealing Goods at ſeveral Times from Mr. William Blount, to be tranſported. Hannah Cater and Anne Starbuck, for robbing William French's Houſe or Barn at Alleſtry, the former to be tranſported, and the latter burnt in the Hand.

Briſtol, March 18. At the Cloſe of laſt Week died at his Houſe in the College Green, Richard Gravet, Eſq; formerly one of the Sheriffs, and one of the moſt eminent Bookſellers of this City.

We have an Account from Thornbury, that laſt Saturday Night Farmer Webb of Tytherington, in the County of Glouceſter, was ſet upon by two Foot-Pads about half a Mile from his Houſe, and robbed of a Purſe with 10 l. in Money. The old Farmer loſt his Money by imprudently pulling out his Purſe in the Market, which the two Fellows perceiving, Way-laid him, and took the Opportunity of robbing him, as the Farmer alighted from his Horſe to take up his Hat, which was bruſh'd off his Head by a Branch of a Tree on the Road. One William Morgan, alias Williams, was on Tueſday Night taken up upon Suſpicion, on Account of his being a little too profuſe of Money, without any viſible Way of getting it; and the next Morning confeſſed the whole Fact, and impeach'd his Colleague, one Thomas Pearſe, a Journeyman Farrier, who work'd at Thornbury, but is ſince gone off, tho' purſued by divers Perſons. Morgan is committed to Glouceſter Gaol; the Purſe, three Guineas, and ſome Silver, was found upon him.

On Wedneſday next begins the General Gaol Delivery for this City and County.

Mr. Abel Dagge is appointed Head Keeper of the City Gaol, in the room of Mr. Thomas Legg, deceaſed.

We hear from Glouceſter, that of the four Perſons under Sentence of Death two are reprieved, viz. Thomas Scovel and William Chiſſel. Daniel Graſtock and George Read, were executed Yeſterday.

The Sixth Edition (with many material Additions, Alterations, and Amendments) of

THE LADIES PHYSICAL DIRECTORY: Or, A Treatiſe of all the Weakneſſes, Indiſpoſitions, and Diſeaſes peculiar to the Female Sex, from eleven Years of Age to fifty and upwards; by which Women and Maids of the meaneſt Capacity may perfectly underſtand the Symptoms, Nature, and true Cauſe of their own Illneſſes, and readily know how to manage themſelves under all their Infirmities. With proper Remedies, in Engliſh preſcrib'd, for the Green Sickneſs, Obſtructions, immoderate Fluxes, Hyſterick Affections, the Piles, and every other Diſorder or Diſtemper the Fair Sex are peculiarly liable to: whereby they may certainly and quickly cure themſelves without Trouble or the Advice or Knowledge of any other Perſon.

To which is annex'd,

A PRACTICAL DISCOURSE on BARRENNESS in Women, and IMPOTENCY and SEMINAL WEAKNESS in Men: Directing how they may be infallibly cured and thoſe Women rendered fruitful, who have been eſteem'd incurably barren for many Years; and ſuch Men become able to propagate their Species, who thro' Imbecility, Seminal Diſorders, &c. have for ſeveral Years thought it impoſſible. With a clear and very particular Account of Generation and Conception. And a Digreſſion concerning the Method of begetting SONS rather than DAUGHTERS, or of DAUGHTERS rather than SONS. Likewiſe of Miſcarriage in Women, and how it may be aſſuredly prevented, even in thoſe who have miſcarried nine or ten times before; with Directions to Ladies how to conduct themſelves during their Pregnancy, and in Child bed: How to cauſe a ſafe and eaſy Delivery, and alſo for the better Management of new-born INFANTS ſo as more certainly to preſerve their Lives; and a Diſſertation concerning ſuckling of Children, and bringing them up by Hand.

The Whole illuſtrated with various Caſes of Perſons cured, proper Hints, uſeful Cautions, Obſervations and Inſtructions; the like, for general Benefit never before publiſh'd, and highly neceſſary for every Family in England. By a Phyſician.

Printed, and Sold only, by the Author's Appointment, at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Poſts in Haydon-Yard in the Minories, London. Price Bound 2 s.

Theſe are to Certify whom it may concern,

THAT the Two Medicines for external Uſe, which have been ſold with ſo much Succeſs for the Good of Mankind near Thirty Years laſt paſt, for the Cure of are removed from the Minories where they have been ſold by the Author, ſo long, and are now ſold only at Mr. Sandwell's Toyſhop, the Sign of the Griffin, the Corner of Buckler's Bury in the Poultry, at 5 s. the Parcel, ſealed up with printed Directions given with them.

Theſe two Remedies need no other Recommendation than themſelves will manifeſt in two or three Days uſing, having by their admirable and even aſtoniſhing Succeſs, gained the Reputation they ſo juſtly deſerve, both in City and Country, after wearing Truſſes for many Years to no Purpoſe.

For by the Bleſſing of God, they make a perfect Cure, either on Old or Young, in a very little Time, and for a ſmall Charge, without any Pain to, or Confinement of the Patient; one Parcel is generally ſufficient for a compleat Cure, eſpecially on a young Perſon.

Many Hundreds of all Ages and Sexes have been cured by them, which occaſioned this Publication, for the Good of the Publick, that all ſuch unhappy People may be delivered from the Charge and Slavery of always wearing Truſſes.

The World might have had many Certificates of Cures of Perſons of all Ages, from Children of a few Months old, to grown Perſons of 60 Years or upwards; but that People are naturally averſe to let it be known, that they ever had ſuch an Infirmity: Yet Mr. Sandwell can ſatisfy any Inquirer of the Validity of what is here ſaid, tho' he has not had ſuch large Knowledge, by reaſon of the ſhort Time he has ſold 'em, as they from whom the Medicines are now, for good Reaſons, removed.

No Letters received except Poſt paid.
